

26 NOVEMBER (AT CAMPUS)

- 18h - 18h30 Critical Approaches to Development – brief notes on where we stand
Isabel Rocha de Siqueira and Paulo Chamon
- 18h30 - 20h “Towards an Abolition Political Economy”
Robbie Shilliam, Keynote Speaker
- 20h - 21h Reception

27 NOVEMBER (BPC)

- 8h30 - 9h Coffee
- 9h - 12h Roundtable 1 - Legacies from critical approaches to development in the Global South
Anti-colonial anti-fascist routes to Bandung, Robbie Shilliam (Johns Hopkins)
The endless motion of capital and the Brazilian nature: The industrial object and political melancholy, Charles Trocate (MAM)
Development critique revisited: a feminist, decolonial perspective. A plead for dignity, radical democracy and the reorganization of society around the support of life in the age of SDGs and civilizational crisis, Miriam Lang (UASB, Ecuador)
Chair: Isabel Rocha de Siqueira (IRI/PUC-Rio)
- 12h - 13h30 Lunch
- 13h30 - 15h30 Workgroup 1 - Concepts and experiences from the South
Feelings of development: Urban space and emotions, Laís Ramalho (IRI/PUC-Rio)
Commodification and capitalization in context: remaking the terms of the debate about in/formalization, Thiago Braz and Andrea Gill (IRI/PUC-Rio)
Development and Culture: In search of the “lost” agenda, Fabrício Missio and Humberto Martins (CEDEPLAR/UFMG and UFU)
Discussants: Robbie Shilliam and Kalpana Wilson
- 15h30 - 16h Coffee break
- 16h - 18h Workgroup 2 - Alternatives to Development?
Development as coloniality: political limitations, the problems of alternative models and the crimes of extractivism, Rafael Bittencourt (UFG)
Pan-Africanism, African Renaissance and the African development in comparative analysis, Anselmo Otavio and Guilherme O. Ziebell (UNISINOS e PUC-Minas)
Reparation and development: the effects of mineral dependence in the post-disaster in Mariana, Vinicius Cardoso Reis (UERJ)
Discussants: Charles Trocate and Isabel Rocha de Siqueira

28 NOVEMBER (BPC)

8h30 - 9h Coffee

9h - 12h Roundtable 2 - Possibilities of critical engagement in the development field

Development as Politics and the Politics of Development: Reclaiming the Destiny of the Global South, Paul Okumu (African Civil Society Platform, Nairobi)

The Violence of 'Sustainable' Population Policies: What does reproductive justice mean in an era of fascism?, Kalpana Wilson (Birbeck University)

Participation in development: a re-reading from the critical field, Maria Elena Rodríguez (IRI/PUC-Rio)

Chair: Paulo Esteves (IRI/PUC-Rio)

12h - 13h30 Lunch

13h30 - 15h30 Workgroup 3 - Territories, rights and resistances

Attacks on the Forest Rights Act (FRA): Dilution of an Indigenous Promise, Devika Misra (Jawaharlal Nehru University)

Local agency and alternative state-building in post-conflict Mozambique: The ambiguous relationship between the state and traditional healers via AMETRAMO, Samara Dantas Palmeira Guimarães (U. Birmingham)

Territories of Resistance against Agribusiness in Brazil, Fátima Mello (IRI/PUC-Rio)

Discussants: Mvuselelo Ngcoya and Paul Okumu

15h30 - 16h Coffee break

16h - 18h Workgroup 4 - Living better in a worse world

Between people and things: an analysis of the judicial attempts at acknowledging the rights of nature, Ana Carolina Cardoso (IRI)/PUC-Rio)

(Re)thinking Sustainable Development Goal 5 (SDG5): empowerment of indigenous women in Brazil, Luma Freitas Lessa (IRI)/PUC-Rio)

Climate crisis, climate Injustice and “environmental fragility”: what can “sustainable development” do about the imminent climate collapse?, Tatiana Castelo Branco (IRI)/PUC-Rio)

Discussants: Maria Elena Rodríguez and Élide Santos

29 NOVEMBER (BPC)

8h30 - 9h Coffee

9h - 12h Roundtable 3 - (Im)possible futures for development

Ukuzimilela: Indigenous plants, auto-growth and (de)colonial imaginations of development, Mvuselelo Ngcoya (U. Kwalazulu-Natal)

Human Rights and Development: tackling setbacks and moving forwards on a decolonial agenda, Élide de Oliveira Lauris dos Santos (Brasil)

What the eyes don't see...? Feelings of solidarity in the datafied world of development, Isabel Rocha de Siqueira (IRI/PUC-Rio)

Chair: Paulo Chamon (IRI/PUC-Rio)

12h - 13h30 Lunch

13h30 - 15h30 Final meeting: next steps

15h30 - 16h Coffee break

NOTES:

There will be simultaneous translation for all sessions.

On November 26, the event will take place on CTC Room, 11^o floor of Leme Building, at PUC-Rio (Rua Marquês de São Vicente, 225 -Gávea, RJ).

On November 27, 28 and 29, the event will be held at BRICS Policy Center (Rua Dona Mariana, 63 - Botafogo, RJ).

RSVP to bpc@bricspolicycenter.org. Limited seats.

Cafes and reception will be offered; Lunch available for purchase by Chega Junto, a cooperative that supports refugee women: 25 reais plate and drink: 5-6 reais

If you have any enquires, please e-mail to acdesenvolvimento.iri@gmail.com.

More information and updates:

WWW.ACD-REDE.COM

BRICS Policy Center
Centro de Estudos
e Pesquisas BRICS

